Happenings of the Day in Various Parts of the Nation's Capital.

A school teacher did it—but she didn't mean to.

General Joffre, the hero of all France—and of all the world, for that matter—yesterday wore a uniform of robin's egg blue and brown flannel puttees, topped off by a cap, also blue, similar in shape to that worn by American naval officers.

He is every inch a soldier. His eyes are cold gray, his mouth a straight line, and his chin of the sort that stops people from asking unnecessary questions. But despite all this, and despite all his activities, General Joffre is undeniably a bit inclined to embarrassment.

He descended from the car that carried him to the Henry White residence, just off Sixteenth street, with the leap of a boy of twenty. He was smiling, but it was the smile of a regular man—and a soldier.

Whereupon the school teacher remarked to the one in particular: "Isn't he cute?"

Kappa Alpha Plan Smoker.

The George Washington University Chapter of the Kappa Alpha Fraternity will hold its first spring smoker at 2011 Columbia road tomorrow evening at 8:30 o'clock. Local alumni and visiting members are invited.

Miss Hopkins to Speak.

Miss Mary D. Hopkins, of the National Consumers' League, will speak at the headquarters of the National American Woman Suffrage Association, 1626 Rhode Island avenue, at the tea at 4 o'clock Sunday afternoon.

Arts Club to Sing.

Members of the Arts Club will present a musical program at their headquarters on Sunday night. Sections will be given by a quartet directed by Mrs. A. M. Blair, with Mrs. Elliott Woods as soprano and Mrs. William T. Reed as contralto.

To Give "Enoch Arden."

Miss Victoria Siddons, reader, and Miss Pearl Waugh, pianist, will give the Tennyson poem, "Enoch Arden," set to music by Richard Strauss, at Belmont Seminary tomorrow evening at 8 o'clock. They will give this same "melo-declamation" at the Congressional Club Tuesday evening.

Plays Aid Red Cross.

A benefit performance to aid the Red Cross was given by the Shakespeare Society of America, now in annual convention here, at the Casino Theater last night, and another is planned for tonight. Last night the members gave "Love's Labor Lost," which they will give "As You Like It."

Junior Temple Dance.

The private ball room of the Arcade, Fourteenth street and Park road northwest, bedecked with flags and bunting, was the scene last night of the first annual ball of the Junior Temple Society, organized last October. The committee on arrangements consisted of Maurice Kafka, David Weiner, Miss Esther Jones, and Miss Carrie Oppenheimer.

Final Y. M. C. A. Lobby Concert.

The final Monday evening lobby concert of the Y. M. C. A. this season will be given under the direction of C. W. O'Connor, of Studio Hall. Assisting him will be Mrs. H. M. Stoddard, soprano; Richard Lordeberg, cellist; George Thompson, pianist; Harry Waller, violinist, and Miss Alwilda Casselman, accompanist.

Tuskegee Alumni Back Wilson.

A patriotic rally was held by Washington members of the Tuskegee Alumni Association at the home of Holloway Bethias, 408 T street northwest, last night. The forty-two active members of the association decided to offer their services, unconditionally, to the President, and resolutely to the President, and resolutely to the President.

SMASHING DRIVE ATTRACTS CROWDS

Eager Buyers Throng Friedlander Bros., 428 9th St.

The addition of another large shipment of trousers to the extraordinary display already on sale at 428 Ninth street, brought out thousands more penny-wise purchasers to partake of the wonderful bargains in trousers being offered by that house.

There is apparently no limit to the variety, cuts and weaves included. Every pattern and shade is in the lot, so it is an exceptionally convenient sale for the man who has an odd coat that he wants to match.

Because of the great size of the stock it has been divided into four lots for the convenience of customers. Special prices on each lot as follows: Trousers that sold up to $4, now $1.99; Trousers that sold up to $4.50, now $2.45; Trousers that sold up to $5.50, now $3.15; Trousers that sold up to $6.50, now $3.99.

Attracted by the unusual values offered in this sale throngs of thrifty buyers have visited this store and made great reduction in the size of the stock, so the wise buyer will not put off his selection, but will avail himself of an early opportunity to purchase from the greatest bargain lot of trousers ever offered in Washington.

To guide you, the name is Friedlander Bros., the address is 428 Ninth street northwest—Advt.

Watch Your Eyesight

Come to us the instant you notice any eye weakness. Eyes should be tested at frequent intervals. Our Dr. Baker, an expert ophthalmologist, will give you FREE consultation and examination. The correct glasses will be prescribed, when needed, and properly fitted. Our low prices may be paid $5c a week.

Soldiers' Rest Room.

Pledges of at least $150 a month for the maintenance of a rest room on Ninth street for soldiers and sailors have been received by the W. C. T. U. Mrs. Emma Sanford Shelton, president, announced today. It is believed that the fighting man will visit the rest room in many cases instead of going into a saloon. The plan was proposed by Mrs. Ella Hoover Thacher, national and international secretary of the soldiers' and sailors' department of the W. C. T. U.

RITES FOR DANIEL LOUGHRAN

Funeral for Veteran Tobaccoist to Be Held Monday.

Funeral services for Daniel Loughran, aged eighty-two, in the tobacco business here for more than fifty years, who died after a short illness at the family residence, 1407 Sixteenth street northwest yesterday, will be held Monday morning at St. Matthew's Church. Mgr. Lee will officiate.

Mr. Loughran was born in Baltimore, January 13, 1835, and came to this city at the beginning of the civil war.

In 1867, he started selling tobacco in a small establishment near Fifteenth and F streets, but later moved to Pennsylvania avenue, near Fifteenth street, where he remained until moving to his larger quarters on Pennsylvania avenue, near Fourteenth street.

He is survived by his wife, four daughters, Miss Margaret, Miss Katheryn, Miss Regina, and Mrs. Mary E. Duke, of this city, and six sons, John, Leo, Joe, and Charles, of this city; Daniel, Jr., of Stockton, Cal., and Edward of Seattle, Washington.

STUART AND STAFF
TO HONOR VETERANS

Will Take Part in Parade Attending Reunion of Confederates.

Col. Robert N. Harper, chairman of the committee arranging for the reception of the Confederate Veterans here in June, today received a letter from Governor Stuart, of Virginia, announcing that he will take part in the parade on June 7, with his staff. He also stated that the cadets of the Virginia Military Institute have been ordered to attend. The corps of cadets will take part in the parade, leaving here the same night for Gettysburg, where it will attend the unveiling of the Confederate monument there.

Tentative Program.

A tentative program for the reunion was announced today by Chairman Harper. In addition to the reunion of the veterans, there will be held here at the same time the twenty-second annual reunion of the Sons of Confederate Veterans, sessions of the Daughters of the Confederacy, and the convention of the Confederate Southern Memorial Association.

The tentative program follows:

Monday, June 4, forenoon and afternoon, fraternal greetings of the Blue and the Gray; seeing Washington; evening, initial meeting of the Sons of Confederate Veterans.

Tuesday, June 5, forenoon, opening session of the United Confederate Veterans, with address by President Woodrow Wilson. Visit to the battlefields of Manassas and Fort Stevens.

Wednesday, June 6, forenoon, business session of the U. C. V.; afternoon, memorial service at the Confederate monument in the National Cemetery at Arlington, Va., the former home of Gen. Robert E. Lee; 5 p. m., open-air concert by Marine Band on Monument grounds, when from 1,000 to 1,500 school children will form a human flag with vocal music; 8 p. m., grand ball by Sons of Veterans in honor of the U. C. V., at the Arcade.

Then to Gettysburg.

Thursday, June 7, parade of the United Confederate Veterans and other organizations at 11; business session of the U. C. V. at 3; ball of the Southern Society at night.

Friday, June 8, excursion to Gettysburg for unveiling of Confederate monument.

Saturday, June 9, sightseeing about Washington.

The Contributors.

Contributions to the fund for the financing of the reunion are coming in from business houses, professional people, and individuals.

Contributions received today by the finance committee are as follows:

WOMEN CAMPERS
TO TILL BIG PLOT

Will Plant Vegetables in Eight-Acre Tract Near Conduit Road.

Women of the National Service School, on Conduit road, who for the past two weeks have been mastering the elements of army discipline, will set an example to the women of the United States in "doing their bit" by farming eight acres of land which adjoins the camp near the District line.

Plans are now in the hands of an expert of the Department of Agriculture. The crops to be planted, how the seed should be sown, and the part the campers will take in their cultivation will be stated within a short time.

It is expected that the plowing will be begun tomorrow.

The daily drills of the campers, and their wireless, first aid, and topography classes will not be interfered with, however. Between the drills and at odd moments they will march to the garden and, armed with agricultural implements, will take up the work of tilling the soil.

One of the details which is proving a stumbling block, however, is just what will become of the land when the camp breaks up. This camp lasts only until May 27. After that date the land may be cultivated by some other organization.

There is talk in camp today of forming a bicycle squad. The girls will be trained in carrying dispatches from one point to another. The only difficulty at present is the lack of bicycles. A call has been issued to Washingtonians for the loan of women's wheels during two weeks. Should a sufficient number of bicycles be obtained the squad will be formed.

PLAY FOR RED CROSS.

In an effort to "do their bit" towards helping the Red Cross fund, students of the Western High School will present a vaudeville performance at the school May 4 and 5 in place of the usual spring play.

ECONOMY is the watchword of today. Here is our way of helping you to make every dollar count.

Spring $16 Suits

The manufacturers priced these suits at $22.00—that was their conservative valuation. We considered conditions and marked them $17.50—$4.50 less than the original price. Now we are cutting $1.50 more from our profit to enable you to buy wonderfully fine values at a very low price.

Look in our windows and you'll see specimens that instantly impress you as $22 values—you can't duplicate them elsewhere for less, and we'll be very glad to have any judge of qualities make a careful comparison.

We guarantee both the wear and the colors. You need have no fear on either point. If any one of these suits fades or changes color we'll give you another suit without question. The same agreement holds good if any garment shows within a reasonable time that it is not giving satisfactory wear.

Soft French Flannels predominate in these suits—in blues, greens, grays, and browns. They're the materials for comfort in hot weather and the coats are but one-eighth lined to give you the maximum of coolness.

Young men, middle-aged men, elderly men—all may find pleasing and appropriate models among the more than 600 suits that we offer at this price. The most exacting can be satisfied with our many style-features, and we can fit you as perfectly as the most competent merchant tailor.
